STARTLING INCIDENT IN A STAGE COACH.

—One day last week, as the Los Angeles and San Jose stage coach was traveling in the night between San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara, an incident occurred which produced anything but a pleasant impression among the passengers. A lady was occupying one of the front seats, and the whole company had been talking and singing in the most sociable manner. After a time the lady settled down as if to go to sleep, and one of the gentlemen passengers asked her if she would not have a pillow under her head.
She made no reply, and the company indulged in another song. As the song ceased one of the passengers opened the curtain so as to let in the moonlight, and looking down at the face of the woman, exclaimed, "Why, can it be that she sleeps with her eyes open?" Another passenger placed his hand upon her forehead, and cried out, "My God, she is dead!" The stage was stopped, and the inanimate, pulseless form of the lady carried out into the open air. She was deadly cold, and her face was wet with the cold sweat supplied to gather only on the face of the dying. After so long a time passing that all hopes of life remaining was given up, she recovered under the vigorous rubbing with whiskey, in which all the passengers had engaged, and the journey was finally resumed. It turned out that the lady was afflicted with the heart disease, and had the discovery of her condition been delayed a little longer she would have been past all human aid. —[S. F. Alta, April 24.]

EDITING A NEWSPAPER.—The S. F. Golden Era has the following among its local answers to its correspondents:
"PRESS—Proposes starting a new paper. Thinks himself eminently qualified to perform the duties of an editor.
Just so. About every third man in the community is troubled in that way. What more common observation than 'nothing in it,' is made on laying down a paper when its contents are not quite satisfactory. You probably imagine that you would make a perfect stumb of an editor, because you have written a few smooth articles. Try it on. Come down to your daily mental mutton daily like a pack horse—he equally spicy, original, amusing, deep, logical, correct, and entertaining on all subjects, from the discussion of the propriety of establishing a new town pump, to the threatened rupture between this country and England.
The pleasures of editorship are various. One is to have your pet article on which you have bestowed no small amount of care and nursing, denominated by unknown individuals, in your hearing, as 'insufferably stupid.' Another is to have your productions, meant to be funny, called foolish. The editor's trials are legion until he gets used to them, and then he is one of the happiest of mortals!"

TRIAL OF COLLINS—HE IS ACQUITTED!
The jury having disagreed on the last trial, says the Downville Messenger, the trial of Collins was called again in the District Court on Friday last. The same witnesses were examined, the same testimony elicited, and the same counsel employed as on the former trial. The case was finished on the afternoon of the second day, and in the evening, Judge Belcher delivered his charge to the jury, and they retired to the jury-room for deliberation. Fifteen minutes after receiving the charge, they had agreed on a verdict, and came into Court. A dead silence prevailed while the Clerk recorded the verdict, and when he read it—"We the jury find the prisoner not guilty,"—a hush of approbation pervaded the room. A rush was made for Collins by his friends to clasp his hands, and Collins and his wife, (who has been constantly by his side during both trials), were moved to tears. With weeping eyes they both thanked the jury, the Judge, and their counsel, and left the room, followed by a large concourse of friends.

THE ALTA, of Monday, April 30th, says: About 5 P. M. yesterday, a young lady, about fifteen years of age, very handsomely dressed, went down to the end of Beale street wharf, and deliberately jumped overboard. She was only rescued from death by Capt. Edward Lennan, of the barque Washington, who plunged in and caught her as she was going down the third time. She would not give her name but was delivered up to her friends. Later in the day she was seized with convulsions, and was taken to the Cal-aboose, where she lay in a frightful condition for hours. We learn that her real name is Louisa Lennan, though she has been playing at a Melodion under an alias. She recovered last night so far as to be able to be removed to the residence of her friends.

THE Yew trees of Surrey, England, stood in the days of Julius Caesar. There is an apple tree in Hartford, Connecticut, two hundred years old. A live oak in Louisiana one thousand years old. A cedar on Mount Lelanon two thousand one hundred and twenty years old. A sycamore in the Bos-phorus four thousand years old.

THREE WORDS OF STRENGTH.

There are three lessons I would write—Three words as with a burning pen—In tracings of eternal light Upon the hearts of men.

Have Hope, though clouds environ now,
And gladness hide her face in scorn;
Put then the shadow from thy brow;
No night but hath its morn.

Have Faith. Where'er thy bark is driven—The calm'st of port, the tempest's mirth—Know this: God rules the bosom of heaven, The inhabitants of earth.

Have Love; and not alone for ease, But man, as man, thy brother call,
And scatter, like the clucking hen, Thy charities on all.

Thus grave these lessons on thy soul—Hope, faith and Love; and thou shalt find Strength when life's surges cease to roll, Light where thou else wert blind.

MINING PARTNERSHIPS.

The following (Chapter 600), of the laws of the late session, is important to every miner in the State. It is in full force now: AN ACT Concerning Partnerships for Mining Purposes.
Approved April 2, 1863.

Section 1. Whenever any two or more persons, being owners, occupants, or locators of any mining claim, or when any two or more persons shall have associated themselves together, with or without a written agreement (but not as a body corporate), for the purpose of working or prospecting any mining claim on any of the public lands of the United States, shall, after being notified in writing by any member of said mining company that they have been associated in said mining claim, be deemed to be copartners for the purpose of prospecting or working said mining claim, and shall be subject to the provisions and liabilities imposed by this Act.

Section 2. After a mining claim shall have been located, any person who shall be a member of the company, desiring to work said claim, may, notify the other members of the company of his or their desire to have an assessment levied against the owners of said claim for the purpose of prospecting, working or developing such claim, designating a time and place for a meeting of the members of such company for the purpose of levying such assessment; such notice shall be given as provided in the fourth section of this Act, and if a majority of the shares in such mining claim be represented at such meeting, then a majority of those present at such meeting shall be authorized to levy such assessment; but if a majority of the shares in such company be not represented at such meeting, then a majority of those present shall be authorized to cause the said mining claim to be prospected or worked, and thereafter the owners in such mining claim shall be liable for their respective proportion of the expenses so incurred in prospecting, working or developing such claim, to the extent of the value of their interest in such claim; and thereafter assessments may be levied from time to time, not often than once in thirty days, by any member not delinquent of said mining company, against delinquent members, for the collection of sufficient amount of assessment to pay for the working and prospecting of such claim up to the time such assessment is made; and such delinquent assessment may be collected as in this Act provided; provided, that when the mining companies have by laws designating what amount of work shall be done in such claim, then any assessment made as provided in this Act shall not exceed an amount sufficient to pay for the work required by the by-laws; and provided, further, that no new assessment shall be made until all previous assessments have been paid, or remedies for the collection thereof shall have been exhausted.

Section 3. Any member of a mining company, or his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns in any mining claim, who shall neglect or refuse to pay any assessments, or shall neglect to perform any labor or other liability which shall become due from him under this Act, may, after the expiration of thirty days after such assessment, labor or other liability has become due, be notified in writing by any remaining member or members, or by his or their agent, that such assessment, labor or other liability is due; which written notice shall specify the name of such mine, and the district wherein it is located, and shall particularly mention the liability which has been incurred.

Section 4. Such notice, and all other notices required under this Act, shall be served as follows: 1. If the party reside in the county where the mine is located, it shall be delivered to him personally, or left at his place of residence. 2. If the party reside out of the county, but within the State, and his place of residence is known, such notice shall be deposited in a Post Office or express office, in a sealed envelope, with postage or express charges, as the case may be, prepaid, addressed to such party at his place of residence. 3. If such party reside out of the State, or his place of residence is unknown, such notice shall be published once a week, for eight successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county where the mine is located, if there be such paper, otherwise in some newspaper published in an adjoining county.

Section 5. If the person so notified shall neglect or refuse to pay or discharge such assessment, work or liability, for ten days after personal service or leaving notice at his residence, when such service has been had or notice so left; or for twenty days after deposit in post or express office of such notice, when such deposit has been made; or until the expiration of the full period of publication herein provided, when publication is made; thereafter such delinquent shall be deemed to have absolutely forfeited and abandoned to the other members of said mining company all the right, title, claim and interest owned, held or possessed by such delinquent in the said mining claim, such portion thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy such delinquency; the remaining member or members may sell the interest of such delinquent member in and to such mining claim, or so much of said interest as may be required to pay such assessment or liability, together with costs of sale.

Section 6. All sales under the provisions of this Act shall be at public auction at the mining claim, and shall be made by any Constable of the township, auctioneer, or Sheriff of the county, and by giving ten days notice thereof by posting written notices in three public places within the mining district where such mine is located. The notice shall also specify the extent of the interest of the delinquent, and the amount of the delinquency, and the name of such delinquent member or members, at the time and place of such sale, which place shall be within the district where the mine is located, and shall commence by offering the smallest number of feet or shares in such claim for sale, and continue selling at the same time and place until a sufficient number of feet or shares is sold to pay the delinquent assessment or liabilities; and the officer selling shall execute a deed to the purchaser or purchasers, and such deed shall be received in all Courts as prima facie evidence of the lawful authority of the officer selling, and of the regularity of all proceedings prior to the execution of the deed, and as prima facie evidence that all the right, title and interest of the party delinquent has been lawfully and rightfully sold and conveyed to the purchaser, and the purchaser's title to such mining claim shall be absolute.

Section 7. The provisions of this Act shall also apply to all persons who have refused or neglected to sign articles of incorporation or a deed of trust in any incorporated mining company.

Section 8. An Act entitled an Act concerning partnerships for mining purposes, approved April 4, 1864, is hereby repealed.

Section 9. This Act shall take effect from and after its passage.

COUNT BUMMERDRUM.

BY EMIGRANT.

CHAPTER V.

Our Count says, "To business"—leads the Royal Scientific Mining and Geological Exploring Expedition, and makes great discoveries.

For two days after the Court had adjudged, the Count appeared to be suffering very much from headache. He would often put both of his hands to his head and cry out, "mine Cot! oh mine Cot!" and had I not with mine own ears heard him testify that "Sawpit viskee muchee goot naw; naw kill em." I should surely have thought him suffering from the effects of a stroke of Sawpit lightning; but old superstitious prejudices like these must give way to science, and I freely admit it was only the effects of a severe cold the Count had taken. I am most happy to say the Count soon recovered from his illness, and turned his whole attention to matters of business. He called his friends around him, and when we were all assembled, opened the large trunk and took out such scientific apparatus as he would need, and freely, through the Surveyor, unfolded to us all his plans. This, he said, is the mining heart of the State; minerals of all kinds are lying scattered around you; science and capital will make us all rich—Guy Fawkes interrupted him with the remark that he would dearly like to be rich.
The Count took both of Guy's hands affectionately in his own, and while tears of noble generosity came unbidden to his eyes, found words to say: "My dear Guy, you shall go home—come down to San Francisco—come to me—I will say to the Baron.
"Uncle, let my friend Guy Fawkes have a thousand dollars"—he will do it, and you can take the money and go home—go where you have a mind to." Such noble, disinterested generosity was wholly unlooked for, and endeared the Count to us more than words can speak.

His plans, the interpreter said, were to make a thorough geological survey of the country around, and, while doing so, collect a cabinet of mineral curiosities; then make sketches of everything in sight, and finally, write a book that would shame the idle Whitney, and others who positively know nothing of the science of geology. In doing this, he would be sure to find rich leads of mineral, and, to successfully work them, would require physical, mental and financial capital—and these we have, pointing significantly to each of us in turn, and then modestly to himself.

Then the social bottle passed, and we all drank, "Here's to the Count," with great enthusiasm.
Before the circle was broken up for the night, the Count had planned out for the morrow a grand scientific excursion to the summit of Pilot's Peak, and we were all kindly invited to bear him company. Just as we were about to bid the Count good night, he took Guy Fawkes one side and whispered something confidential in his ear.
Guy put his hand in his pocket, drew it out very quick and handed something to the Count. They thought we didn't see them.
I know I am only an emigrant, but I could tell them: they can't deceive me.
The exploring party, seven in all, started at the peep of day, well provided with catables, plenty of the beverage, and, I might add, I thought the attendants well provided with gunny sacks, having just two apiece.
The Count could of course pack nothing, for it was absolutely necessary that the great scientific world should be untrammelled.
The sun rose in magnificent splendor, while we were yet at the foot of the mountain, which was regarded as a very great piece of impudence on the part of old Sol, and a bitter disappointment to the Count. We had been hurried forward at the top of our speed, hoping to be in time to witness a sun-rising from the top of the Peak; but now, we were allowed to struggle along at our leisure, and had excellent opportunities for observation. The Count soon began to discover wonders, and their name was legion—curious pieces of rock, generally quartz, and usually weighing from one to ten pounds each.
These specimens soon became decidedly too interesting to us, and we modestly suggested the propriety of leaving them in some secure spot until our return; but the Count would not hear to it; they were too valuable to lose, and if left might be carried off before our return; so for safety, we packed them all. Our party, with the exception of the Count, were all very warm and very much wearied when we gained the summit.

The dim outlines of what is supposed to be the Coast Range of mountains were barely visible in the distance, reminding one of a faded picture of the original. A noble peak, far away from where we were standing, and what we called the Shasta Buttes, was capped with snow and proudly reared its head above the surrounding mountains. St.
Louis, and many other mining towns looked puny indeed, as they lay scattered around beneath our feet, and they were all very pretty, still, something seemed to whisper, "Emigrant, this won't pay freight." However, we paid a hearty tribute of respect to the refreshments, smiled cheerfully at the keg of beverage, and made a great effort generally to be happy.
On our return home the Count found marvelous curiosities at every step, and we marched into town very much like a train of—dromedaries.

The Count was cool, and in most excellent spirits; and as he assisted us to lay down our bundles, I could not but notice that his shirt collar and bosom were quite as glossy and faultless now as in the morning; but no matter, the servant is never greater than his master. We had, in one day, discovered the Coast Range of mountains, the Shasta Buttes, and a host of mining towns; and had actually agged and brought home 150 pounds to the man of cinders, lava, lime and quartz; a feat unparalleled in the annals of history, and that shed a halo of bright glory over the Royal Scientific Mining and Geological Exploring Expedition, and placed a wreath of bright lapsels around the brow of its illustrious founder.

SATURDAY, MAY 12, 1886.

MAIL ROUTES.—Gen. Bidwell has succeeded in making Chico the headquarters of the Humboldt and Idaho Mail route. Chico should be proud of the General,—he is great in many things, and Chico is his "pet." We congratulate the citizens of Chico on the result of her Congressman's scheme; and at the same time we sympathize with the citizens of Oroville, Humboldt Valley, and all other points on the Dogtown road, over their loss. We can only say that when they vote for Congressmen after this, they must vote for a man who is peculiarly interested in their locality. (It don't affect this section, and all we are mad about is, that the General don't live in American Valley, or Plumas county.) A new route has been established from Taylorville to the Corner Place, in Big Meadows; and a route from Oroville via Dogtown to the same place, has also been established, so that the citizens on that line do not lose any of their mail facilities, but they do lose the great U. S. Mail line.

GRAND JURY.—No regular grand jury having been drawn before the meeting of the County Court on Monday last, and the case of the People vs. McVay having been brought before the Court, the Hon. County Judge ordered a special grand jury to be summoned to appear on Thursday last, at 1 o'clock, p. m. At the time appointed, the following named persons appeared and were sworn, viz: J. W. Thompson, D. R. Cate, L. H. Pierce, P. L. Hallsted, Benj. C. Curn, W. Kinsey, W. H. Miller, J. C. Church, Wilkes, J. Clark, J. Sharpe, J. W. Snyder, A. J. Weldon, J. H. Hays, — Jeffers, S. Goodwin, E. Light, J. Walker, J. E. Edwards, J. S. Root, J. P. Kneisley, D. C. Hall, and W. W. Kellogg.

The jury was in session two days, and found two true bills of indictment: one for an assault to commit murder, and one for drawing and exhibiting a deadly weapon, in a rude, angry, and threatening manner, in the presence of two or more persons. The jury made their final report on Friday, and were discharged for the term. The report will be published next week.

AN UNPROFITABLE REMEDY.—The French government says it sent its army to Mexico to collect a debt which it was not able to get settled in any other way. Figures recently published show how the project has worked. The sum due the French was originally less than $2,000,000; while the French operations in Mexico have already cost more than $150,000,000—that is, every dollar of the debt has dragged after it fifty dollars more. Going to war to collect dues is even worse than going to law, which even the most unfortunate of business men never found to be worse than this experiment of Louis Napoleon's. We must add to his misfortune, however, his utter failure to advance the glory of the Latin race on the American continent, and his serious loss of prestige and popularity among his own subjects.

SWEET DECEPTION.—In making a seizure of a distillery in New York, lately, the police found a large quantity of old printer's rollers, from which it was ascertained that the owners of the works were in the practice of making brandy, by extracting the molasses, used in making the composition for the rollers. It must be a sweet deception that is produced from such a material. The roller is the devil's principal instrument in a printing office, which he constantly washes with lye. The brandy made from such a material, must be the very essence of lies.

COOT TROUBLES.—Several horses were recently stolen from Strain's ranch, on Feather river. They were found on Tuesday week, says the Datto Record, near Bangor, in this county, tied in the woods, with the following note attached to one: "It is with deep regret we are obliged to leave these horses; but as they are foot-sore, it is imperative. We hope in the future, the owner will keep them well shod, as we intend to give him another cill."

PAYABLE IN HEAVEN.—The State Treasurer of Indiana received in a package of money from the Treasurer of Ross county, a twenty dollar bill, signed by the Treasurer of the United States, made payable in Heaven, and the angel Gabriel's name affixed as cashier. The note was issued by the National Bank of Jeffersonville, and is genuine. The bank, however, refuses to redeem it, and we understand a suit will be brought by Mr. Morrison for its recovery.

NEED RECONSTRUCTION.—The Canadians are sadly in need of reconstruction at the hands of the Peninsular. Recently, J. P. Riker Doyle, the New York Herald's correspondent at Toronto, was kicked out of a barber's shop with his coat off, his face covered with lather and a towel round his neck, for uttering some sentiment favorable to Ireland.

OUR COUNSEL AT LIVERPOOL writes to the State Department that all the steamers and emigrant ships leaving that port are crowded with persons emigrating to this country. The indications are that the present year the emigration to the United States from Europe will far exceed that of any previous year since the foundation of the Republic.

THE SENATOR (ALABAMA) registers that Gen. W. J. Hardee has, at the request of Gen. Grant and Sherman, received from President Johnson an assurance that he may continue the pursuit of a civil life without fear of molestation by the United States authorities.

ROADS.
The "Act to authorize the Board of Supervisors of Plumas county to aid in constructing certain Wagon Roads," has become a law. The people of this county have at last awoke from their long lethargy. The first day of May in this year will long be remembered in the annals of Plumas county, as the auspicious period, when they awoke to a sense of their own interests, and the importance of having good roads leading into the midst of their rich and productive agricultural and mining regions; and hence, by a large majority, they have decided to authorize the issuance of bonds by the county, to aid in bringing about this desirable result.

This is a consummation we have long and ardently desired. We were well aware that Plumas county was entitled, by nature, to rank among the foremost and richest counties in the State. Its only drawback and great want were good roads with easy grades. These impediments to its prosperity, the voters of Plumas county have declared shall no longer exist, if in their power to obviate them; and, hence, the result of the vote on the road appropriation. And therefore, we truly and sincerely congratulate the people of our county upon the wisdom and foresight of their late action. The voters of Plumas county have nobly and generously performed their duty in the premises; and it now remains with those whose immediate duty it is to carry out this express wish of the people, to see that the several routes are located, surveyed and pushed forward to a speedy completion. Such we have every reason to believe will be done without delay. Already those men, having the honor of the Quincy and La Porte Wagon Road, have taken preliminary steps to perfect their organization; and we are assured by leading men of their number that they will push this road through during the present summer.

We also learn that the Quincy and Indian Valley Road Company will immediately reorganize, and complete their road through without delay.

Let those having the control and management of the river route now go to work—organize, cause the various surveys to be made, locate their road, get an estimate of its cost, and be prepared at an early day to push forward that all important enterprise to a speedy and successful completion.

PLAN OF THE RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE.—A Chicago dispatch says the Reconstruction Committee had a four hours' session April 23rd, at which all the members were present, and agreed upon the following joint resolution, which was to have been reported to Congress on the 25th, as an amendment to the Constitution:

ARTICLE.—Section 1. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law; nor deny any person within its jurisdiction equal protection of the law.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons of each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever, in any State, the elective franchise shall be denied or abridged, except for participating in the rebellion or other crime, the basis of the representation of such State shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such made citizens not represented shall bear to the whole number of male citizens not less than twenty-one years of age.

Sec. 3. Until the 4th of July, 1870, all persons who voluntarily adhered to the late insurrection, giving aid and comfort to it, shall be excluded from the right to vote for members of Congress, and for electors for President and Vice President of the United States.

Sec. 4. Neither the United States nor any State will assume to pay any debt for obligations already incurred, or which may hereafter be incurred in aid of the insurrection or war against the United States, or any claim for compensation for the loss of involuntary servitude or labor.

Sec. 5. Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The second section of this proposition, in regard to representation, is similar in substance as the proposed amendment adopted by the House some weeks ago, and which was defeated in the Senate—Sumner, Yates, Howe, and other Radicals voting against it. It is now presented in different language and may be so modified as to receive the assent of the impracticables.

SEWING MACHINES.—See How They Go.—It is a real satisfaction to us to see sewing machines traveling over the land, and especially to see them making their way into so many parsonages. How one lightens the labor and care of a patient, toiling mother. Many a poor minister's wife has been saved thereby from overwork, and so from consumption and an early grave. Hence, we rejoice to see them go, and are glad to speed them on their way. A clergyman from Minnesota, who called on us this week, could not leave New York without taking back this invaluable accompaniment. He went to Grover & Baker's, and we believe picked out the best one he could find in the whole establishment. We are sure he got his money's worth. (New York Evangelist.)

THAT BLACK EGG.—An exchange says that the black egg on which Sumner and Stevens have sat and cackled and chuckled, his finally hatched out, not a young negro, but a—vito. They are as much astonished and chagrined as would be an experienced hen to discover that her tedious incubation had resulted in snapping turtles instead of young chickens.

CHAS. C. S. EVANS has been appointed Adjutant General of the State of California, with rank from May 1, 1886, vice Robert Robinson, resigned. [Exchange.]

Evans held this appointment before, and resigned to take a seat in the Senate. The Senate having adjourned, Robinson resigns and Evans is re-appointed. What a nice little arrangement this was, between a Low Governor and two of his Ramp friends.—[Express.]

The appropriation received from the county, will all be applied on that road and with a small contribution from the citizens interested in the building of the road, it can and will be completed.

Jones, and McVay was ordered to file bonds in the amount of $2,500 to appear before and await the action of the Grand Jury. McVay failed to procure the necessary bonds, and was lodged in jail.

Cross Road.—It is reported that the La Porte Wagon Road Company intend building a cross road, leaving the main road at the Willow Ranch, and connecting with the Mohawk Valley Road at or near Long Valley. Such a road will be a great accommodation to the farmers of Mohawk and Beckwourth's valleys; and the distance to La Porte will be but a trifle more than it is by the way of the proposed Beckwourth's Pass Road via Slate Creek.

En Route.—A troupe of bu-dies, with their boss musician, passed through this place on Monday last on their way to Swamp Flat. They know when and where money is plenty, and where they will receive patronage. For the good name of Quincy, we are pleased to learn that no person was willing to accommodate the bu-dies with rooms for dancing in this town. If all other towns in this county would do the same, they would get rid of a nuisance.

The St. Nicholas.—It is useless for us to say one word in favor of the St. Nicholas Hotel, at Oroville, because two-thirds of our citizens who stop in Oroville on their trip to the lower country, "put up" at the St. Nicholas; and they remain, if ever, change their stopping place. We know of what we speak, for we have been "there." As will be seen by reference to the advertisement in this paper, Mr. R. L. Patton is connected with the St. Nicholas, and as a matter of course, all of "Bob's" friends will give him a call.

Proceedings.—The proceeding of the Board of Supervisors is published in this paper. A large amount of business was transacted at their meeting, all of which affects, and as a matter of course, interests every citizen in the county. The road interest of the county received considerable attention, and the appropriations made, cannot fail to suit a majority of the people. The subject of a map of the county was also discussed, and an order made in reference to it. If Mr. Whitney will make us such a map as the specifications call for, the appropriation will prove to be a good investment.

Rice Quartz.—On Thursday last, Mr. J. W. Snyder showed us some very rich specimens of gold bearing quartz, which came from a ledge in French Ravine, near Rich Bar, East Branch of Feather River. The ledge was recently discovered and located by Messrs. Irwin, Schultz & Co. The ledge from which the specimens came, is on the opposite side of the ravine, and a short distance below the ledge discovered and prospected by Mr. Blackmore some years since. One of the specimens which Mr. Snyder procured, did not weigh over three ounces, and at least one-half ounce of gold could be seen in it. The rock was so filled with gold that when the quartz was broken or cracked, the gold would hold it together. If there is but a small quantity of the same kind of rock left in the ledge, the owners will soon realize a fortune from it, and we hope that such will be the case.

P. M.—John S. Roor, Esq., has received the appointment of Postmaster at Quincy, and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

LANDS IN IOWA.—The Davenport (Iowa) Gazette says that, at least twelve million acres of arable land yet lie untouched by spade or plough, within the boundaries of Iowa.

The manufacture of the new Atlantic cable is making satisfactory progress, and will soon be turned at the rate of 100 miles per week.

New Paper.—McClain, late proprietor of the Carson Appeal, contemplates starting in that place an evening paper. The first will be issued on Monday, May 1st.

Miss ISABELLA CULD of Virginia, who killed her lover, Robert H. Meade, has been found guilty of "unlawful shooting," and sentenced to pay a fine of one cent in lawful currency.

THE CHICAGO TELESCOPE.—Chicago has at last received its great telescope, the largest ever made. The aperture of the object glass is 18 1/2 inches. The instrument was packed in nineteen boxes.

We move to refuse all advertisements unless paid for in advance, except from the reliable firms—now expands the motion?—[Ex.]

We second the motion, and call for a vote on the resolution.

LANDING OF THE PILGRIMS.

BY FELICIA MCMANS.

The breaking waves dash high On a stern and rock-bound coast,
And the woods against a stormy sky Their giant branches toss;
And the heavy night hung dark
The lids and waters o'er,
When a band of exiles moored their bark On the wild New England shore.
Not as the conqueror comes,
They, the true-hearted came;
Not with the roll of stirring drums,
And the trumpet that sings of fame;
Not as the flying come,
In silence and in fear:
They shook the depths of the deepest gloom
With their hymns of lofty cheer.
Amidst the storm they sang:
And the stars heard and the sea,
And the sounding sails of the dim wood rang
To the anthem of the free!
The ocean eagle soared
From his nest by the white wave's foam;
And the rocking pines of the forest roared—
This was their welcome home!
There were men with hoary hair Amidst that pilgrim band; Why had they come to wither there, Away from their childhood's land?
There was woman's fearless eye, Lit by her deep love's truth;
There was manhood's brow, serenely high,
And the heart of youth.
What sought they thus afar?
Bright jewels of the mine?
The wealth of seas, the spoils of war?
They sought a faith's pure shrine!
Ay, call it holy ground,
The soil where first they trod; [found—They have left untainted what they Freedom to worship God!

THE RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE.—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:

I am sorry to observe a disposition on the part of the Reconstruction Committee to suppress, in the pretended publication of General Lee's testimony, the most important portion of that distinguished soldier's examination. I violate no confidence in giving it, as follows:

Question—What kind of shirts did you wear during the war? Answer—Calico sometimes, and sometimes woolen.
Q.—You are married, are you not? A.—Yes, I am.
Q.—Well, state to the Committee what kind of underclothing your wife wore during the unholy strife. A.—I was not at home much of the time and cannot say.

Q.—What color was it? A.—I do not know.
Q.—Was it gray? A.—I never took notice.

Q.—Don't you know that the ladies of the South formed a secret club for the wearing of gray petticoats during the war? A.—I do not.

Q.—Don't you think they were more gray than blue in the article of clothing to which we refer? A.—I do not know; never investigated the subject.

Q.—Is it true that the women of the South wear Jeff. Davis' picture in their bosoms? A.—I never took notice. Should not be surprised if some of them did.

Q.—Do you think a Freedmen's Bureau agent would be allowed to marry into a first family of Virginia? A.—If a young lady belonging to a first family were willing, I suppose he could.

Q.—How long will it be before pumpkins pies become a favorite dish in the late rebellious districts? A.—I do not know. Some people like them now.

Q.—Is there not a great aversion to codfish, as a Yankee staple of diet? A.—I do not know that there is.

Q.—Do they like pork and beans in Virginia? A.—Some people do.

Q.—What's your opinion of the Fenians? A.—I have not given the subject much attention.

Q.—How are you on Schleswig-Holstein? A.—I have not made up my mind on that subject either.

Q.—Which side do you sleep? A.—The right side, generally.

Q.—Do Southern men generally continue to sleep in arms, notwithstanding the cessation of the rebellion? A.—Those who are married do, I believe.

Q.—Do those who are not married abstain from doing so? A.—I can't say that they all do.

Southerners are buying nice residences in the fashionable parts of Boston. Over twenty first-class houses there have lately been purchased by Southerners, who say they have made fortunes during the war and have come North to invest it.

AMUSING.—To hear the late, eleventh hour converts talk about old line Republicans being Copperheads because they sustain the President, and will not admit that the fact of secession was accomplished. Amusing! It borders upon the ridiculous.

The Supervisors of Lassen county have contracted for the construction of two bridges across Susan river. A valuable improvement on the route, over which the trade of the northeastern territories must eventually pass.

The Emperor Napoleon's recent speech, consisting of one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four words, was transmitted to the farthest part of France by the telegraph in little over half an hour.

SILVER CITY, Nevada, has been visited with a terrible calamity—a large portion of the town being laid in ashes. Total loss, $30,000.

THE MUTE DETECTIVE.—"No dogs admitted, sir," said the porter to a gay assemblage, as a young man appeared at the entrance. "You must leave him behind if you go in."

"Very well," said the young man. "Stay about here, Prince, till I come back."

And he joined the crowd within; but by and by the young man wished to refer to his watch, when, behold! the chain had been snapped in two, and the valuable time-piece was gone. He considered the case a moment, and then a sudden thought flashed in his mind. So, stepping out, he whispered the fact to the porter, and gained permission to take his dog in for a minute or two.

"Look here, Prince," said he, "you know my watch is stolen?" and he showed him the empty pocket and the cut chain.

"Do you understand, old fellow? In there, sir, is the thief. You find it, my good doggie, and I'll get you a famous treat. You understand, do you?"

Prince wagged his head and tail, and gave his master a wonderfully knowing look, and then stole quietly into the place again. Quietly his dumb detective glided around among the people, smelling at this one's coat and that one's chain, until at last he set his teeth firmly into the coat-tail of a gentleman-looking man, and could not be shaken off. The young man quietly made noyn the case to the bystanders, who gathered around him, and had the thief's pockets duly searched. Six other watches were found upon him, which he had gathered up in the course of the morning, and which their rightful owners were glad to get their hands on again. Prince selected out his master's property in a twinkling, as that was all he cared for, and gave it to him joyfully. It would have taken a very keen police to do work so neatly and quickly; and all agreed that he merited as good a dinner as a dog could have. A good beef bone and a bowl of milk satisfied all his wants, and then he was just as ready to do the same favor again.

Established expressly to afford the afflicted sound and scientific medical aid, in the treatment of all chronic diseases, and all sexual diseases.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. W. K. Doherty returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for the patronage and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his institute for the cure of chronic diseases of the internal organs, and all private diseases, viz: Syphilis in all its forms and stages, Seminal Weakness, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Nocturnal and Diurnal Emissions, Sexual Debility, Diseases of the back and loins, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, etc., and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice will continue to insure him a share of public patronage. By the practice of many years in Europe and the United States, he has acquired the most efficient and successful remedies against diseases of all kinds. He uses no mercury, charges moderate, treats his patients in a correct and honorable way, has references of unimpeachable veracity from men of known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him by letter or otherwise will receive the best and gentlest treatment and implicit success.

DR. DOHERTY would call attention to the following certificates, from two of his patients, who, having fully recovered their health, desire to make known their indebtedness to him. It will be seen that his statements are fully authenticated by a Notary Public.

The welfare of society imperiously demand their publicity and they are given here to earn the credit which is due to the skill of a Physician, of whom hundreds of like cases can be cited during a practice of more than fifteen years.

A CASE OF GLEET AND STRICTURE.—Dr. Doherty.—Dear Sir: I feel my health so fully restored, that in common gratitude, I would send you a testimonial of my indebtedness to your valuable services—particularly so as your fee was small for the work performed. I arrived in this city from the East about one year ago, and was afflicted with an old case of Gleet, complicated with stricture. Being a stranger in this city, and believing those doctors who gave such positive assurances of cure, I was necessarily obliged to consult with several of them, but all failed to cure me. I was then referred to you, and after a few days' treatment, I had nearly all hope and all anxiety of mind. I was then employed, and the only one that has ever done me any service. My Gleet is wholly cured, the stricture is all removed, and my general health is better than it has been for years. In conclusion I would say to the many unfortunate who require medical advice, if you have any doubts as to whom you may consult, ask Dr. Doherty for my address, and call and see me. (I keep store in this city.) My experience may save you many dollars. I would also add that in the early stage of my disease, I used a large amount of the preparations advertised as an infallible cure for Gonorrhea, Gleet, etc., but never derived any benefit from them. I am, however, very truly yours, JAMES JOHNSON. San Francisco, June 16th, 1881.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 21st day of June, 1881. A. S. GOULD, Notary Public.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—A sworn to Certificate of a most remarkable cure of Seminal Weakness.—A desire to benefit humanity, and a feeling of gratitude to Dr. W. K. Doherty, alone induces me to make and publish this statement. For many years I have been afflicted with that fearful disease known as "Seminal Weakness" or "Seminal Debility," the result of self-abuse, but till 1875, experienced but little trouble or inconvenience in that regard. However, I had Seminal Weakness to an alarming extent, which was soon followed by the most alarming symptoms, as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of vision, nervousness and general debility. My mind too, was afflicted to such an extent as to seriously impair my memory, my intellect and my spirits depressed. I was averse to society, had evil forebodings and self-doubts, and was entirely unable for any of the duties of life. From 1875 to the summer of 1880, I consulted the very best medical talent I could find, and spent several hundred dollars but in no instance obtained more than temporary relief. I had almost concluded there was no relief for me, when I met Dr. Doherty, and seeing Dr. Doherty's advertisement, I thought I should call and see him, as he charged nothing for consultation. I had an interview with Dr. Doherty, at his office in Sacramento street, and after a few minutes' conversation, I determined to try him, though I did not expect much benefit from his treatment. On the 5th day of December, I moved myself under his care, and in one week, I found myself very much improved, and now, after five weeks' treatment, I feel myself thoroughly cured of all my troubles, and in the enjoyment of the best of health. Hoping that my experience may be of benefit to others similarly afflicted, I subscribe myself, JAMES JOHNSON.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 15th day of Jan., 1881. A. S. GOULD, Notary Public.

TO FEMALES.—When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, irritability, nervousness, extreme urinary difficulties, derangement of digestive functions, general debility, all diseases of the womb, hysteria, etc., they should go or write at once to the celebrated female doctor, W. K. Doherty, at his Medical Institute, and consult with him about their troubles and disease. The doctor is offering more cure than any other Physician in the State of California. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately and save yourself from painful suffering and premature death. All married ladies whose delicate health or other circumstances prevent an interview in their families, should write or call at Dr. W. K. Doherty's Medical Institute, and they will receive every possible relief and help. The Doctor's offices are so arranged that he can be consulted without fear of observation.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Patients residing in any part of the State, however distant, who may desire the opinion and advice of Dr. Doherty on their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such in preference to holding a personal interview, are respectfully assured that their communications will be held most sacred. Dr. Doherty takes this opportunity of observing that all letters are only opened and replied to by himself, and the latter as promptly as possible. If the case be fully and candidly described, personal communication will be superseded, as instructions for diet, regimen, the general treatment of the cases (including the remedies) will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey the object of the purpose of the letter or parcel so transmitted. Consultation—Free. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Address, W. K. DOHERTY, M. D., San Francisco, California.
